Manhole Cover Lifter

The tool is designed to support the positioning and handling of equipment during installation or surface preparation. Its wheeled frame and adjustable components help guide the tool across the working area, providing greater control and ease of use.

SPECIFICATIONS

- Frame Material: Metal
- Handle: Metal handle with black grip
- Adjustment: Adjustable frame components with locking knobs

FEATURES

- Wheeled design for easy movement across the working area
- Adjustable components to help position the tool
- Robust metal frame for durability
- Ergonomic handle with a non-slip grip
- Locking knobs to secure adjustments
- Compact design for practical on-site use

